Betty Jean Klaaren was born, October 18, 1932, in Oskaloosa, Iowa to Ralph and Jennie (Vander Meyden) Van Zetten. She was a 1950 graduate of Oskaloosa High School where she was named the salutatorian of her class. Betty married the love-of-her-life, Ernest John Klaaren, September 22, 1950, at Central Reformed Church in Oskaloosa. Ernie entered the Army in February 1951; while he was in his initial training in Indiana, Betty moved there with him. Betty came back to Oskaloosa to live with her parents when Ernie was sent to Germany. After Ernie's return from the military, Betty and Ernie moved to a farm near Fremont and eventually purchased the farm and built a new home. Those were busy days for Betty with three children to care for in addition to helping her husband on the farm. In 1961, Betty took a job with McCurdy Seeds in Fremont as a secretary/bookkeeper. Over the next several years she worked in various other offices including an insurance office and a physician's office.

Betty was a life-long member of Central Reformed Church and over the years served in numerous capacities including: organist and pianist, and Bible school teacher. As a young mother, she was a member of Phoebe Sisters. Later she was a member of Ladies Aide and she helped in the kitchen for countless weddings and funerals. Betty volunteered extensively in the Fremont and Oskaloosa communities, one of her greatest passions was for the Mahaska County Conservation Commission which she served for over 30 years. Betty loved music and also enjoyed expressing her creativity in painting, needlepoint, embroidery, and cross-stitch. Betty always had a large garden and spent many hours canning and freezing. While living near Fremont, she and Ernie made many dear friends and even after moving into Oskaloosa in 1991, they continued meeting with their monthly card club.
