

Aubrey Coder-Holderman

July 5, 1990 - January 15, 2026

Aubrey J. Coder-Holderman, age 35, passed away on January 15, 2026, due to surgical complications.

Aubrey was born on July 5, 1990, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to Jamie Coder and Curtis Laver.

She is survived by her loving husband, Chris Holderman; her children, Lexi, Bentley, Bailey, Westley, Lily, and Bodhi; her mother, Jamie Coder-Laver; her father, Curtis Laver; her father, Brian Severson; and her stepmother, Melissa Severson. She is also survived by her siblings, Justin Coder, Keaton Laver, Dakota Lent, Ciara Wade, Brianna Volesky, and Jake Severson. She is further survived by her grandparents, Kenneth Coder, JoDee and Gene Moody, and Marnie, all of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; many Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and special friend Abby.

Aubrey was a free spirit and wildflower, known for her great sense of humor and her unforgettable laugh. She loved Jesus, music, books, nature, animals, rocks and crystals, bracelets, necklaces, fashion, painting, and plants. One of her favorite songs was "Save Me" by Jelly Roll, a reflection of both her depth and her heart. Her soul was as beautiful as she was.

A Celebration of Life will be held this spring or early summer. when all six of her children are able to be together.

A Go Fund Me will be set up for her husband and children.

Tribute Wall

“ Aubrey thank you so much for for everything I love you so much thank you for always helping me and supporting me on everything I love you so much I will take of my Gf Alexis I still think about you everyday and will look after her sibling I wish we had to seen each other I will always remember you thank you for talking to me and being so kind to me, thank you Aubrey so much I'll always admire you of what you done. -Jason

Jason Coronasells - March 04 at 12:44 AM

DR

“ Aubrey, so sorry your journey on earth was so short. I felt a very special connection with you from the 1st day I meet you at Community Hope. Chris, I am so sorry for your loss.

Denise Render - January 18 at 11:04 AM

AD

“ Andrea Duke lit a candle in memory of Aubrey Coder-Holderman

Andrea Duke - January 16 at 01:15 PM

DB

“ One of my most favorite memories of Aubrey was the day we met we became best friends like instantly didnt matter the circumstance. We vibed and I loved her for who she was. Rest in heaven Aubs i'll miss you every day.

Desarae Bohlen - January 16 at 12:11 PM