“ A very sweet lady! Even though she moved away, she still wished to remain connected to the church by having us send her bulletins and other Christian reading material. Her faith and trust in Jesus Christ was very evident. We hope you find comfort in this.

“ I will always remember staying with her in her high rise apartment. Not really alot to do but sit and look at all the cruise ships in the harbor but it was time spent with her. I am so happy that you are painless and rejoicing in heaven now. Love you always and I will see you again.

“ I've known Bonnie all my life. She was like a second grandma to me. She and my grandma we're friends for many, many years. She love God, and her family very much. When she would come to stay with my grandmother a few weeks, she always had pictures of all the kids to show me. She is no longer in pain and is rejoicing in heaven. Her and Ruth (my grandma) have a of catching up to do. My condolences to the family. My God give you comfort and strength. RIP Bonnie Love, Cindy
