

Chiyoko Sakihara Romano

July 8, 1923 - April 10, 2004

Chiyoko Sakihara Romano: Chiyoko passed away Saturday evening at the age of 80 years, 9 months and 2 days

Chiyoko is survived by her sons, Satoru and Misao Fishwick, both of Oskaloosa and a sister, Sumiko Urasaki of Okinawa, Japan.

Chiyoko Sakihara Romano, daughter of Seiei and Ushi Sakihara was born on July 8, 1923 in Okinawa, Japan. She was a high school graduate in Japan. In 1966, she moved to Joliet, IL, where she worked at the Holiday Inn and as a seamstress for a large department store. In 1987, she and her son moved to Oskaloosa. She took much pride in her two sons and in spite of ill health, remained a vital part of their lives. Chiyoko loved sewing and arranging flowers. Chiyoko was a devoted Christian, she was a member of Iesu No Mitama Kyoki (Church) in New York; when her health allowed, she was a guest at Coffee Break Bible Study at the First Christian Reformed Church in Oskaloosa.

Chiyoko was preceded in death by her parents and two brothers, Seiden and Seimei Sakihara.
