

Clara Ona Westercamp

March 25, 1922 - July 3, 2017

Clara Westercamp, 95, of Oskaloosa passed away Monday evening, July 3, 2017, at the Northern Mahaska Nursing and Rehab Center in Oskaloosa. Clara Ona Westercamp, daughter of Earl Russell and Leora May (Martin) Ling, was born, March 25, 1922, at the rural home of her parents in Poweshiek County, Iowa. She attended Barnes City School through the 11th grade, but attended Cosgrove School for her senior year, graduating in 1939. She married Gerard Westercamp, November 29, 1940, in Bedford, Kentucky. They made their home on a farm five miles north of Oskaloosa, a place they lived their entire married life. Clara stayed busy helping her husband with the many farm chores in addition to caring for her home and three children. When her children were older, Clara began waitressing in Oskaloosa, she worked at several restaurants including, Nichols Café, Red Star Café, Boston's Coffee House and The Checkerboard. She later worked at Willimsen Shoe Store, Shoeland and lastly at Stuart's Shoe Store. She retired in the late 1960s. In their later years, Clara and Gerard enjoyed traveling and camping in Arizona and Texas. Gerard passed away November 7, 2008 after nearly 69 years of marriage. Clara was a member of the First Christian Church in Oskaloosa. Her family includes her children and their spouses: Faye and Wendell Knowler of New Sharon, Roger and Darlene Westercamp and Howard and Marjorie Westercamp all of Oskaloosa; 11 grandchildren, many great-grandchildren, and several great-great-grandchildren. In addition to her parents and her husband, Clara was preceded in death by a sister,

Thelma McMains and two brothers: Walter and Russell Ling.
