On Feb. 16, 1940 he was united in marriage to Anna Van Gilst at her parent's home in Wright, IA. Together, they farmed 3 years near Oskaloosa, then near Cedar for 5 years; and in 1949, they bought their farm north of Oskaloosa, where they lived until 1967. At that time they moved into Oskaloosa, where they enjoyed their retirement years. Ernest continued to be active with his sons in their farming operations. He was a member of the First Christian Reformed Church in Oskaloosa, where he served many years on the Church Council and the Building Committee; he served on the Oskaloosa Christian School Board and its Building Committee, the Pella Christian High School Board, and Dordt College Board. He enjoyed spending time with family, farming and caring for animals, and particularly the livestock auctions.
