Gary and I go way back in the Navy. We sailed the World together. I am seeing this obituary for the first time today, June 13, 2025. I went out to the Ohio Western Reserve veterans national Cemetery to visit my late wife's grave. And for some reason, I thought of Gary and thought I need to look that boy up when I get home. My wife died November 13, 2019 when I found Gary's obituary today I noticed he passed a few short weeks after My wife. He was a sailor's sailor! He loved the sea, and he was a great leader. Fair winds and following seas shipmate. Until we meet again, God bless your soul. Joe McDonald Retired USN (99)

“ I served with Gary when he was at BUPERS. I first met him personally when he made a detailer trip to NAS Meridian in 1989. It was because of Gary that I was the first E6 ever assigned to the Management Assistance Inspection Team (MAIT) in DC. I had many cups of coffee with Gary in the cafeteria and I respected him for doing the right thing every time. Fair winds and following seas shipmate, we have the watch.

Served with Gary on Oriskany and Midway. He also convinced me to become a Navy Recruiter. This allowed me to put on my Khakis in recruiting and get my star on returning to sea duty. Rest in Peace Gary, we have the watch.
