George Wesley Ballinger, son of Glen Owen & Georgia Ward Ballinger, was born August 3, 1927 in Lacey, Iowa. George was a 1944 graduate of Lacey High School and following his graduation he served in the U.S. Navy for two years at the end of WWII. He returned to Oskaloosa where he worked at Central Book Store and Sherwin Williams. In 1954, he rejoined the Navy, where he served until his retirement in 1971. While in the Navy, he attended many schools, the most significant was Nuclear Power Training. He served on several ships, one of which was the Okanogan, where he made four deployments to Viet Nam. He attained the rating of Senior Chief Petty Officer. He also served on the USS Enterprise CVA 65 which circumnavigated the earth during Operation Sea Orbit as part of the Nuclear Task Force One in 1964. During this voyage he was initiated into the Solemn Mysteries of the Ancient Order of the Deep as a Trusty Shellback. Following his retirement he made his home in Island Park, Idaho. In 1984, he returned to Oskaloosa, where he met Dorothy Owens DeKock. They were married August 10, 1985 at the Little Brown Church in Nashua, Iowa.

George was a member of the Lacey United Methodist Church, the Oskaloosa Elks Lodge, the American Legion, the Fleet Reserve Association, the Retired Enlisted Association and the Naval Mine Warfare Association. George enjoyed photography and working with computers.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Dorothy on May 3, 2009; his parents; and a cousin, Forrest Dunsmoor, who he considered a brother.
