

George Hoke Jr.

March 17, 1945 - September 14, 2021

George T. Hoke Jr., 76, of New Sharon, passed away Tuesday, September 14, 2021, at the Hospice of Pella Comfort House.

George Thomas Hoke was born March 17, 1945, in Davenport, Iowa, to George and Reva (Davis) Hoke Sr.

He married Sandra Whipka on September 17, 1963. They had three sons: Tom, Tim, and Todd. He retired after 35 years at Alcoa Aluminum Factory. He enjoyed reading his Bible, going to church, and singing old gospel hymns. He also enjoyed day trips and playing his guitar.

Survivors include his wife, Sandra, and beloved dog, Molly, sons: Tom of Pocatello, ID, Tim (and Traci) of Papillion, NE, and Todd (and Dee) of Oskaloosa, IA; two grandsons: Joshua and Jerrod; a brother, Frank, and a sister, Pat.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister, Hulda, and a brother, Lonnie.

As per his wishes, he was cremated, and there will be no services. Memorials can be made to the Hospice of Pella Comfort House. Langkamp Funeral Chapel & Crematory has been entrusted with George's final arrangements.

“ We have missed George and Sandra at Calvary Baptist the past couple of years. Did not have a long friendship with George, but long enough to appreciate him for the kind and caring person he was. Sandra, we are sincerely sorry for your loss. Wonderful knowing we will see each other again soon.
