“ Glenda was my aunt, Likel Dickerson was my father. I have so many fond memories of my childhood visiting Glenda in Oskie. Everything from getting my ears pierced for the first time to finding out if you feed baby raccoons black licorice, well I'm sure you can imagine what happens. Glenda taught me so much growing up but mostly taught me to be kind to others. Although it had been a while since I spoke with her she held a special place in my heart and always will. Heaven gained a true angel....
