

Glenn R. Walker

November 25, 1963 - April 28, 2012

Glenn R. Walker: Glenn passed away early Saturday morning at Mercy Medical Center in Des Moines as a result of complications after open heart surgery. He was 48 years, 5 months and 3 days of age.

Glenn's family includes his parent, Stephen and Janet Walker of Oskaloosa; his brothers and sisters-in-law: Dennis and Deana Walker of Rose Hill, Rex and Jannett Walker of University Park, and Eric and Lisa Walker of Fort Carson, Colorado; several nieces and nephews; and great nieces and great nephews.

Glenn R. Walker, son of Stephen and Janet Short Walker, was born November 25, 1963, in Oskaloosa, Iowa. He attended school in Rose Hill for a few years before transferring to school in Oskaloosa. When Glenn was 18 years old he moved to the Christian Opportunity Center in Pella. He worked in the sheltered workshop doing piece work.

Glen always looked forward to his visits to his family in Oskaloosa. He particularly enjoyed Sunday television, when he watched religious programs for their message and the music. Glenn was a very compassionate person and loved little children. He was fascinated by the clouds and enjoyed predicting the weather.

Memorials may be made in his name or to the Christian Opportunity Center.
