Sorry to hear about Grace. We played many an hour of cards especially when the fields were to wet to plow. I also brought food and ate with her in her apartment. What she liked to eat - I left. What she did not I took to my motel. Then Willie came in to play cards. She was a very good farm wife and fried fish. I say she was well trained to be in church when ever the doors were open. I sure miss the funerals in Osky and especially this one. There will be many sandwiches served at the church. My mom was 95 and served 130 plates at Bethel church. I know this to be a celebration for the christian as Grace certainly was.

Oh yes. Grace had a health problem no one could solve. She went to Mayo Clinic. I knew the day and was concerned during a Fellowship lunch. The christian cowboy there had several come forward for healing prayer. So I went to stand in for Grace as she went to mayo that very day. I saw the lady next have her leg extended. I went home to phone Ernie as they passed that way - no answer. That summer I went home and saw Grace and ask about her problem. "Funny thing" she said it went away. I said that is very nice not saying anything of the miracles that noon. I was so glad and just praise God.

Marilyn and i are stuck at home as she broke a hip , had a slight stroke and lives in a wheelchair while I cook and feed us. I walk slow with a cane, shop and cook-leaving her shower to another helper. Two daughters in town are great with food dishes delivered often. Without this tie down I would probably be in Osky and eat another supper with Grace.

So long Willie, Bonnie and Joyceeeee and Hubby. have a delightfull visitation at her service, as I know you will. You will probably need extra chairs.

“ ‘Auntie’ Grace, your smile and loving nature will be very sorely missed. Always a quiet supporter through all that happened, and reminding me of God’s love and promises. Til I see you again and can enjoy radishes with you. Be proud of the strong woman and Christian that she was.
