

Helen Marjory Hugen

August 7, 1920 - September 24, 2010

Helen Marjory Hugen: Helen passed away Friday morning at the Solon Nursing Care Center at the age of 90 years, 1 month and 17 days.

Her family includes two daughters: Barbara Erickson of Oskaloosa and Connie Hayden of Chicago; a son, Larry (Kim) Hugen of Iowa City; six grandchildren: Michelle (Joe Irizarry) McCoy of Chicago, Ill.; Tim Erickson of Paragould, Ark.; Melissa (Keith) Aiken of Jonesboro, Ark.; Addison Hugen of Iowa City; Hank and Clay Hugen of Iowa City; and four great grandchildren: Samantha, Miranda and Katie Erickson and Bennett Aiken.

Helen Marjory Hugen, daughter of Tunis and Clara Newendorp De Heer was born August 7, 1920 near Leighton, Iowa. Helen was a 1938 graduate of Oskaloosa High School and then worked as a clerk at Woolworth Dime Store until 1943. She married Henry ""Hank"" Hugen September 12, 1940 in Leighton. They made their home in Oskaloosa except for a few years during WWII when Hank was stationed at Fort Hood, Texas. Helen was a member of the Central Reformed Church and the D.A.R. Helen enjoyed golfing in a ladies foursome, her coffee group and playing cards. She and Hank enjoyed wintering in Arkansas and Arizona for several years and she also enjoyed vacationing with her children in Minnesota. Helen will always be remembered for her great sense of humor and her happy, vivacious and optimistic personality.

Besides her parents and her husband, Hank, Helen was preceded in death by an infant son; a granddaughter, Danielle Erickson and a brother, Melvin De Heer.
