“ Dearest Cookie although I only met you a few times I admired your sense of humor even though you were battling your illness. I do know firsthand how hard your loving Daughter, Christina, fought your battle with you. She worked hard towards the goal of keeping you as safe and comfortable as possible. God bless her and all of your Family and RIP Cookie. Diane

“ I love and miss you Aunt Cookie....I will always remember all the fun we used to have when I was growing up. I remember us kids putting on plays, having our lil rock band that we called The Golden Stars (of which we played guitar on plastic rakes and shovels...lol), and I remember pretending that we were a restaurant taking your food order and preparing food....just to name a few of my memories. I can still hear you say..."sonsabitchesnshells!" It's like it was just yesterday I can still hear it so clearly. I love you so much! You are now with Gomp and Grandma once again and in a much better place than before. 🥹
