“ *Condolences to all of Jerry's family. He will be missed. I believe I have know Jerry since he was about 18 and I was about 4. Jerry was always working on a car. He was a heck of a mechanic. My favorite story was the time he was in the drive working on a car and needed some parts uptown. He told Pam to watch his tools so nobody takes them. We lived near the RR tracks and were always cautious about leaving things outside. When he got back from getting his parts his wrenches were all gone! Pam had stuck each wrench down the gas fill hole for safe keeping!
Jerry teased me all my life, I will sure miss seeing him at the races.
RIP Jerry

“ Jeff, Mark, Tracey , Walon & extended family. Our family sends it's condolences. Growing up on South C Street & 6th avenue, was always an adventure. Neighbors in those days always helped one another & Jerry would always lend a helping hand or tool. He was ahnory, loud, and could "cuss a blue streak", as our mama (Anne De Witt) would say. Lol! He was hard working and played even hard 😊. Despite the load crys and woopings you kids took, he loved you dearly. I remember him sober up faster than any man could and had tears in his eyes when Jeff and Mark disipeared one afternoon. You all were in an old frig that had been thrown out in yard. Jerry finally realized where you were and with his bare hands jerked the door off the hinges. As your limp little bodies slumped out, he scooped both of you up in his arms. That day in my mind be was a supper hero. This past summer my brother Harry was haveing trouble getting his scooter loaded and He tells me Jerry helped him. Jerry always treated our mama with the utmost respect & the last time I saw him was almost 20 years ago at her funral. Sorry I'm not able to be there for his, but you will all be in my thoughts & prayers. Gods blessing & may peace flood over you all. In Gods love, Charlene (De Witt) Forbes(Husband Kelly) & Harry De Witt jr.
