

Joann Wymore

March 5, 1929 - August 10, 2023

Joann Wymore went home to be with her Heavenly Father on Thursday, August 10, 2023, at her home in Oskaloosa at 94 years and five months old.

Joann Irene Wymore, daughter of James Olin and Lillie (Boomershine) Sarvis, was born March 5, 1929, at her parent's home in Rose Hill, Iowa. She joined siblings: Marvin, Lloyd, Alberta, Gerald, and Norma. She was educated in Rose Hill and graduated with the class of 1946. On June 28, 1948, Joann married Bob Gene Wymore at the Little Brown Church in Nashua, Iowa. They were married 63 years, ten months before Bob's passing in 2012.

Joann worked for optometrist Dr. Kitchen until her daughters were born and then was a stay-at-home mom. When she went back to work, she worked at The Carousel, a children's clothing store. She later returned to Dr. Kitchen's office and then later worked for Dr. Coen. She retired in 1992, and she and Bob spent 16 winters in Texas. They volunteered at host programs at the local schools, caring for others at the park, and going into Mexico to take food and clothing to an orphanage.

She was a member of the Fellowship Bible Church, where she taught Sunday School and Bible School. She was a past member of King's Daughters, and when her daughters were young, she served as a Girl Scout Leader.

Joann's family includes her daughters and their husbands: Connie and Lee Wright of Oskaloosa, Debi and Ken Fredrickson of Streator, IL, and Brenda and Carl Shadden of Marshalltown; seven grandchildren: Jodi Cullinan, Lindsey Pederson, Megan Black, Emily Friestad, Jacki Hicklin, Craig Shadden and Grant Shadden; and 17 great-grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, Joann was preceded in death by her husband, Bob; an infant daughter, Jacquelyn Rae; a granddaughter, Lesli Wright; three brothers: Marvin, Lloyd, and Gerald Sarvis; and three sisters: Alberta Casey, Norma Lester, and an infant sister, Geraldine.

Funeral services for Joann will be held at 1 p.m., Monday, August 14, 2023, at the Langkamp Funeral Chapel, with Pastors Dane Justis and Rodney DeRonde officiating. Burial will be in Forest Cemetery. Visitation will begin at 9 a.m., Monday; the family will greet visitors from 11:30 a.m. to service time. “ Your parents were good friends and neighbors to my parents. Their friendship goes back to the 40s when before they were married both helped my parents on our farm near Rose Hill. Your mother cared for my brothers, gardening, canning, butchering chickens, etc. Bob helped with farming work leaving the job to join the Service for WW2. Good people together again,

“ So many memories with your mom and dad from the Tabernacle. We could write a book along with Carol. It will take a while for you to adjust to not having To check on mom on your mind. I still read something and think “I need to tell mom!!” As always our close knit group of classmates will walk beside you through this. You were such a good and faithful daughter. There will be a special place for long time caregivers in Heaven. I wonder if your mom has let go of your sister and Lesli yet?

“ Most sincere condolences to you 3 girls and families. There are so many memories and fun times that come to mind as we were growing up. We had so much fun camping and hanging out together and being in church together. Joann was such a kind and caring lady! What I will always remember most though, was her quick wit and her love for playing jokes on my dad and mom and always laughing until it hurt! She’s finally in peace now. God Bless.
