John Harold DeGroot, the fourth of nine children, of George and Bertha Hollander DeGroot, was born February 20, 1931 at the home of his parents in rural Rose Hill, Iowa. As a youngster he attended a one room country school and helped on the family dairy farm. As a young man he was employed as a hired man for several area farmers. He married Dorothy Irene Van Roekel, February 17, 1955, in Oskaloosa. The first year of their marriage, they lived on a farm west of New Sharon. They then moved to the farm they called home for 39 years; where they ran a small dairy operation. Although the dairy operation was his work, John loved running it. His sons assisted him on the farm and he eventually turned the operation over to his son, Randall. He also enjoyed repairing and refinishing furniture. John delighted in his family and Friday evening, and later, Sunday afternoon get-togethers were a highlight of his week. John has been a resident of Crystal Heights Care Center since 2007. He was a member of the First Christian Reformed Church in Oskaloosa.

In addition to his parents, John was preceded in death by his wife, Dorothy on September 21, 2001; three brothers, Ray, and Gary and Clarence as children; a sister and brother-in-law, Josephine and Dick Hardeman; and two sisters-in-law, Linda DeGroot and Darlene DeGroot.
