

Joyce Irene Chandler

July 19, 1954 - September 1, 2006

Joyce Irene Chandler: Joyce passed away at her home Friday afternoon, surrounded by her family, at the age of 52 years, 1 month and 12 days.

Joyce loved the Lord and was active in her local church. She enjoyed traveling with her family and especially times spent on Sanibel Island, FL. She was active in tennis, volleyball, snow skiing and water skiing through the years.

Joyce Irene Chandler, daughter of Raymond and Lois Perry Boleyn, was born on July 19, 1954, in Postville, Iowa. She was a 1972 graduate of Valley High School in Elgin, Iowa and attended Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa. Joyce married John Charles Chandler June 21, 1975, in Elgin, Iowa. Following John's graduation from Drake University, they purchased a local pharmacy in Elgin. After eleven years there, they spent three years in Lake City, eleven years in Creston and three years in Centerville. While in Centerville, Joyce gave up her various administrative assistant positions, and became a homemaker.

Joyce is survived by her husband, John Chandler of Keomah Village; two daughters: Kathleen (Mike) Fincham of Marysville, KS; and Jennifer (Glen)

Hart of Roswell, GA; one son, Brian (Alicia) Chandler of Folsom, CA; Joyce's father, Raymond (Donna) Boleyn of Elgin, IA; three brothers; Lee (Diane) Boleyn of Elgin; Dean (Antonia) Boleyn of Wichita, KS and Kevin (Antonia) Boleyn of Woodbridge, VA; one sister, Janet (Richard) Davis of Silver Spring, MD; and five wonderful grandchildren. Following their years in Centerville, they have resided in Keomah Village, a State Park just outside Oskaloosa, IA for the past two years. She was preceded in death by her mother, Lois Boleyn.
