“ My Aunt Joyce was one of the best cooks! She made chicken and noodles and awesome caramel brownies they were 2 of my favorites! I have too many memories to list. I think my most fond one was the Christmas' we spent together at my Grandparents house. She would always spoil me with great gifts and never missed my birthday! She was such a great caregiver to my grandparents when they needed her. I would have sleepovers at her house and we would pick strawberries and eat them with ice cream! She played the local country music station on the radio and that's how I learned who George Strait and Alan Jackson were! We would listen to the country count down. 😊 She had several dogs and cats over the years and funny stories to tell me about them. Aunt Joyce was all around so much fun to be around and had that distinct laugh. If I called her Joycie she would call me Jenny! Rest Easy Aunt Joyce. Love you always and forever ❤️ Jennifer

“ I remember Joyce Dykstra when she was an Osky High sophomore student and her husband to be, Johnny Rodwell, drove a few of us country kids in a '58 Chevy suburban school bus across the river at Eveland Bridge, and dropped us off in rotation before recrossing at Gately Bridge and ending his route at his home in Givin, Joyce was always smiling and friendly and quick to welcome us into their home over the years. Farewell, Friend.

“ I worked with Joyce at FMC from 1998 until she retired in 2005. She was a sweet lady. I loved going in her office and hearing stories about her family and seeing all her family photos she had on her desk. She will be dearly missed by our FMC Family.

“ Sincere condolences to Joyce's family. I worked at FMC with Joyce for many years. We worked our Saturday rotation together for 13 years. I remember her "shoe" collection. (= She loved new shoes, her pets, and her family...not in that order. May she rest in peace.

“ Joyce was such a great neighbor to me as I was the only girl in the neighborhood growing up. She was always there when I needed her. Her kindness will always be remembered by me. Rest In Peace Joyce.
