“ I was raised in Oskaloosa and will always remember the bait shop. We went there often. They always had what we needed to fish. It was something everyone knew about in Oskaloosa and it has been missed by many. They were very nice people. I went to school with the boys. My children even remember the bait shop. My condolences to the family. Prayers to you all in your time of sorrow. Esther Stocker (Cox) and family.
