

Kimberly Sue Waller

February 7, 1970 - February 18, 2025

Kimberly “Kimi” Waller, 55, of Ottumwa, formerly Eddyville, passed away Tuesday, February 18, 2025, at the Ottumwa Regional Hospital.

Kimberly Sue Waller, daughter of Roy Edwin and Ethelina (Gee) Waller, was born February 7, 1970, in Bettendorf, Iowa. As a child, her family moved to Eddyville, and she attended school there. She was a 1989 graduate of Ottumwa High School. Following her education, she moved to Boulder City, Nevada, where she worked for the Fisher Space Pen Company. The family returned to Eddyville in 2010, and she worked for CampaignHQ until she suffered a stroke in January 2022.

Kimi enjoyed music, camping at Lake Wapello and spending time with her grandchildren.

Her family includes her daughters: Stephanie (Kyle McElhenny) Waller of Ottumwa and Shannon (Randy) Deevers of Eddyville; four grandchildren: Blake (Cami) Deevers, Ashton Wade, Rylea Dobson, and Kyneslea McElhenny; a sister, Joannie Abernathy of Eddyville; a brother, Rusty (Jenny) Waller of Newton; and many nieces and nephews.

As was her wish, her body has been cremated. No services are planned at this time. Memorial contributions can be made to the family. Langkamp Funeral Chapel & Crematory has been entrusted with her arrangements.

“ I had the privilege of caring for Kimmy for the duration of her living at Good Sam. She was always so excited to see me and the feeling was mutual. We had so many laughs together. My heart is broken right now. I will never forget you my sweet Kimmy. Thoughts and prayers are with your loved ones, and may you rest easy my friend ❤️

“ My heart is absolutely broken. I'll forever have a missing piece. Kimi was not only my baby sister she was my sounding board, my adventure partner and my biggest fan. I'm not sure how to go on in a world without her. I have way too many memories to list! I'm glad she's not suffering anymore though. I love you ❤️ Kimi.
