“ This is a card Jaida made for you when we found out you were back in the hospital. Unfortunately she never got a chance to give it to you. It says the following: "I hope you get better and I love you so much and no matter what you'll always be with us" ”

“ There are many things left unsaid in a moment like this. There will also be many things said from differing perspectives. I will say one thing only. This is for everyone who glances upon this note. In every moment, from this one on, the following words are a mission for your life. If you have an unconditional and unwavering love and caring for the needs of others, and use every spiritual gift and tool in your toolbox to meet those needs; then everything else will fall into place. This is what Lynette would want in honor of her.

“ Lynette, unfortunately I never got to meet u in person but we talked on the phone & through Facebook often. You had a bright & bold spirit! like Chasity said you walked to the beat of your own drum. You loved HARD & you didn't take crap from anyone! I'm so sorry we never got the chance to meet & that you'll never know the boys but they'll know of you someday & they'll know how much you loved them just like the older 2 knew/felt it. I hope you are now free of pain & heartache and that you are enjoying whatever it is that's after this human life on earth. Rest easy Lynette ❤️
