much appreciated veterans, she was quick to share a sincere "Thank You" to any veteran she encountered. She also enjoyed going to breakfast with friends and coffee time with church friends on Tuesdays. She loved her nieces and nephew and their families and treated them as they were her own, playing games with them and taking them shopping.

She is survived by a brother and sister-in-law, Calvin Lee and Janet Marie Ademeit of Oskaloosa; two nieces: Donna (Matt) Budd of Altoona, and Lisa (Alan) Coffman of Indianola, and a nephew, David (Tracy) Ademeit of Lacona; ten great-nieces and nephews; four great-great-nieces and nephews; an aunt Betty Downer of Longmont CO; and several cousins.

“ Margaret was a wonderful lady and helped me so much during my early years as a country music entertainer. She was not only the Iowa state representative for my fan club, but also served as our National President for several years. I can't count the times I've walked onstage and seen her smiling face in the audience...giving me her support and her unwavering friendship. Rest in peace, Sweet Lady, and thank you for enriching my life. Bill Anderson

“ Margaret was a wonderful volunteer at the Oskaloosa Public Library as well. She helped me out for several years following her time as Librarian at the Nelson Pioneer Farm. She was very knowledgeable about Mahaska County history and Buxton and coal mining. We had many conversations while she helped me with clipping newspapers for the Public Library. I will miss her very much!
