Marjorie's family includes a son and daughter-in-law, Norman and Vicki Van Mersbergen of Cedar; daughters and sons-in-law: Mary and John C. Roose of New Sharon and Florene and Brian Tucker of Pensacola, FL; and a daughter-in-law, Kathy Van Mersbergen of Pella; 14 grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren; a brother and sister-in-law, Seymour and Anita Vander Schaaf of Urbandale; sisters and brothers-in-law: Leona and Martin Nunnikhoven of Pella, Cynthia and Junior Langstraat of Otley and Abe Nunnikhoven of Oskaloosa; and several nieces and nephews.

Marjorie Van Mersbergen, daughter of Floris and Marie Fynaardt Vander Schaaf, was born March 9, 1923 at the rural home of her parents near Givin, Iowa. She was an Honor Graduate of Red Country School in Harrison Township. Following her education, Marjorie helped on the family farm. September 6, 1941, Marjorie made her Profession of Faith at the First Christian Reformed Church in Oskaloosa. She was united in marriage with Marius "Mose" Van Mersbergen on December 23, 1943. They made their home on a farm north of Wright. Marjorie helped Mose with the farming and kept the operation going during the year and a half that Mose was serving in WWII. In 1954, Mose and Marjorie bought a farm SE of Cedar. While living in the Wright/Cedar area, Marjorie and Mose were members of the Cedar Christian Reformed Church where Marjorie served as a Sunday school teacher. As the wife of a farmer and the mother of five children, Marjorie kept very busy with gardening, canning, baking and sewing. In 1976, Marjorie and Mose moved to their home on Clearview Drive in Oskaloosa. They transferred their membership back to the First Christian Reformed Church and Marjorie enjoyed the fellowship of the Ladies Bible Hour. Marjorie's first priorities were always her faith and her family; her greatest treasure was the knowledge that her children and grandchildren were walking with the Lord.

Besides her parents, Marjorie was preceded in death by her husband, Marius on July 19, 1985; sons: Derrel on May 6, 2003 and Gary on June 1, 2010; sisters: an infant sister in 1929 and Harriett Nunnikhoven in July 1981; a brother, Marvin Vander Schaaf on April 1, 2010; and a sister-in-law, Tressa Vander Schaaf on June 27, 1992.
