

Norma Gasperi

September 20, 1924 - October 20, 2020

Norma Louise Gasperi, 96, of Des Moines, formerly of Keomah Village, Oskaloosa, passed away on October 20, 2020, at her home in Des Moines, Iowa.

Norma Moore was born on September 20, 1924, at her grandfather's farmhouse across from the White Oak Church in Thornburg, Iowa, to parents William Clair Moore and Elizabeth McKay Moore.

Norma received a teaching certificate from the Iowa Teachers College and an English degree at Drake University. She taught high school in Gibson, Iowa. Norma married Raymond James Gasperi on July 26, 1947, in the White Oak Church in Thornburg. After Ray completed his mechanical engineering degree at Iowa State University, they moved to Texas and raised four children. Ray's work with Shell had them move to California, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Illinois. After retirement, they returned to Iowa. Norma made new friends and kept in touch with many. She enjoyed belonging to the First Presbyterian Church of Oskaloosa, AAUW, Eastern Star, book clubs, and loved playing duplicate bridge. She and Ray traveled to many locations around the world, including visits with relatives in Austria and Italy. They opened their home on the lake to many visitors from near and far. Norma hosted countless family events and felt it was important to keep family together. We share the memory of her kind and generous nature and all the delicious dinners and large assortments of cookies, pies, and treats she would share with so many.

In addition to her parents, Norma was preceded in death by Ray, her son Jim, and her brother Jim Moore.

She is survived by her children: Betty (Mike) Sullivan, Ankeny, Gigi (Dan) Vance, Des Moines, Doug Gasperi, Des Moines, and Jane Gasperi, Des Moines; grandchildren: Kristi Sullivan (Cary Hall), Mary Sullivan, Emily Cifuentes, Jonathan Vance, Jessica (Bill) Friend, and Jeffrey Gasperi; great-grandchildren: Aaron and Haley South, Enzo Cifuentes, and Ali and Georgia Friend.

Thanks to the caring and helpful staff at Edencrest and the therapists from Kindred at Home.
