

Patricia Hayman

September 14, 1943 - July 28, 2012

Patricia (Van Arkel) Hayman: Patricia and her husband, Don Hayman, died Saturday, July 28, 2012, as a result of a motorcycle accident near College Station, TX.

She settled in Huntsville, Texas where she enjoyed a career in the Texas Criminal Justice Dept, as an Administrator of Clinical Lab Services. After retiring, she was able to focus on her many hobbies which included gardening, sewing, riding her four-wheeler with her beagles and exploring the countryside.

Patricia was born, September 14, 1943, in Oskaloosa to Ralph and Lillian Van Ommen Van Arkel. She attended Grant Elementary School and was a 1961 graduate of Oskaloosa High School. She was a graduate of William Penn University where she studied Biology, Chemistry & French. She later moved to Pittsburg, KS where she attended graduate school at Pittsburg State University, completing a degree in Microbiology.

Those left to honor her memory are her mother, Lillian Van Arkel of Oskaloosa; her son, Dr. Brad Randleman and granddaughters: Taylor, Casey & Mia Randleman of Atlanta GA; her sister and brother-in-law, Donna & Ron Ruggles of Oskaloosa; her niece, Samantha Nelson of Chicago IL; and her niece and nephew-in-law Scarlett & Jon Overturf of Oskaloosa.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Patricia Hayman

October 05, 2023 at 11:57 PM