Richard Michael Crile, son of Bernard Edmund and Norma Harriett Campbell Crile, was born March 27, 1952, in Oskaloosa, Iowa. As a child, his family lived on a farm south of Rose Hill. He was a 1970 graduate of Fremont High School. Mike was united in marriage to Donna Lee West December 23, 1969, at the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Oskaloosa. They began their life together in Delta, where they lived until 1986, when they moved to Oskaloosa.

Mike began his working career with Wausau Homes and later Kingsberry Homes. In 1976, he began working at Pella Corp. and worked there until the time of his death. He spent 15 years in the door plant and the past 5 years he has worked in central maintenance. Mike was a member of St. John Lutheran Church of Oskaloosa, where he taught Sunday School and he was a past member of Hope Lutheran Church in Sigourney. He enjoyed watching Hawkeye Football and Wrestling and was an I-Club member. He was a long-time supporter of Oskaloosa Wrestling. He also enjoyed gospel country music, rebuilding and painting cars. He most of all enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren.

Mike was preceded in death by his mother, Norma Crile; a brother, Rev. Steven Crile and a sister, Betty Richardson.
