“ My memories of Roger are that he had a great sense of humor, was a good craftsman, proud Air Force retiree, enjoyed gardening, dancing, bowling, gambling and sight seeing in the Colorado mountains. He loved his children and grandchildren although he may not have shown that often enough. He was a good man. I'm happy to have known him. May he rest in peace. I'm sorry to hear of his son Mark's recent death. He was also a good, kind-hearted man. My condolences. Ann (Thimmesch) Balashaitis

“ A life well lived. A family well provided for. Lots of humor mixed in. Dad did his best. Rose to the occasion and occasionally fell. He was an imperfect human being as we all are. I hope you Rest In Peace.
