““Leave some work for me” was the words that Ron would say. I was a student at william penn university that took a semester off to focus on my family I needed a job and I wasn't sure where I could one but i did "work" at Hawk eye lumber Co in Osky. I took the opportunity and learned from everyone that I could mostly from the opportunities Ron was able to provide. Ron was a kind hearted man to me i learned alot about osky and the profession in the lumber business. I soaked up that opportunity as a young man supported my family and went back to school and graduated from william penn university. Like everyone we meet in life we lose track over time and lose them before you get to officially say goodbye bye. When you sit some days and wonder like I did today and a person that touched your heart or made a impact on you reminds you of what you are today is a reminder that they are always here.
