

Shirley Mae Stursma

December 21, 1939 - August 11, 2013

Shirley Stursma, 73, of Oskaloosa passed away Sunday morning, August 11, 2013, at the MHP Hospice Services Serenity House in Oskaloosa.

Shirley Mae Stursma, daughter of Andrew and Henrietta (Menninga) Bogaards, was born December 21, 1939, at the home of her parents in rural Oskaloosa. She was a graduate of Pleasant Ridge School and a 1957 graduate of Pella Christian High School. Shirley worked as a secretary at Pella Christian High School for the first year after graduation. She married Martin Paul Stursma, May 30, 1958, in Pella. In 1961, she and Paul moved to Killeen Texas after he was drafted into the Army. They returned to the Leighton area in 1963 and moved to Shirley's parent's farm near Leighton where they lived for 10 years. In 1973, they purchased their farm south of Leighton where she remained until the time of her death. Shirley was a true helpmate and partner to Paul in their farming operation: she helped with raising the animals; she raised a huge vegetable and perennial flower garden, and preserved the produce from her garden. In 1997, Shirley went to work for the Mahaska County Conservation Board at Russell Wildlife Center, she later became the administrative assistant. This position was very well suited to Shirley because of her love, wonder and appreciation of God's creation. She remained with the Conservation Board until 2012. Shirley's hands were never idle: everyone she loved had a crocheted afghan and from 1972 until present she baked and decorated cakes, including 100s of wedding cakes.

Shirley was a member of the Leighton Christian Reformed Church where for numerous years she eagerly served as a Calvinette leader, a Sunday school teacher and a Youth Group leader with her husband.

Her family includes her children: Kriste (Mike) Van Den Heuvel of Cedar and Tim Stursma of University Park; three grandchildren: Kate (Adam) DeJong of Oskaloosa, Grant Van Den Heuvel of Cedar and his special friend, Lacey Azdell of Mexico, MO and Allison Stursma of University Park; a great-granddaughter, Cobie DeJong; sisters: Pearl Van Waardhuizen and Ruth Van Hal, both of Pella; brothers: Gerald (Mattie) Bogaards of Pella and Lawrence (Harriett) Bogaards of Oskaloosa.

In addition to her parents, Shirley was preceded in death by her husband Paul on February 18, 2009.
