

Tikens Binns

May 23, 1980 - June 30, 2021

Tikens Binns, 41, of Ottumwa, passed away Wednesday evening, June 30, 2021, at MercyOne Medical Center in Des Moines, Iowa.

Tikens Kurtrisha Michelle Binns, daughter of Jay C. and Virginia (Stinson) Kerr, was born May 23, 1980, in Davenport, IA. Growing up, Tikens attended Knoxville and Oskaloosa High Schools. When she was 17, she met Jeff Binns, and the two were inseparable. Tikens and Jeff married May 6, 2006, and two children were born to this union, Chris and Mercades. Tikens worked in the foodservice industry for multiple restaurants before her retirement in 2016, when she became a full-time homemaker. Tikens was a huge race fan and loved attending the races in Oskaloosa, where she watched her brother compete weekly. Tikens had a spirit that was always overjoyed. She constantly was smiling and always wanted the mood to be light and happy. She was also an avid music lover, but Tikens true love was her family.

Tikens was preceded in death by her father, Jay C. Kerr; her stepfather, Dave Brackelsberg; her grandmother, Pauline Stinson and an uncle, Curtis Stinson.

As was her wish, Tikens' body has been cremated, and a private family memorial service will be held at a later date. Memorial contributions can be made in Tikens name. Langkamp Funeral Chapel & Crematory has been entrusted with Tikens final arrangements.

She was the only person that ever called me Christine. And you're all right that smile of hers was very contagious and all that in her eyes always showed her feelings and how much she loved. We had her up and downs over these years the last few years getting older we both moved out and I so enjoyed her visits she got me the prettiest mother's Day present this year it's a gorgeous Flowers and she got one that she said was I didn't really want I got her when they got married I believe the things she could remember. I will miss her ever so much it isn't goodbye we will be together again I shall miss you I love you very much
